KEY TO NOTATION

⌒ = Direction that nose faces

→ = Direction of movement

(Directions are given in words for some diagonals, curves, etc., if my PC doesn't have the appropriate symbols)

b = behind   br. = brush
cl. = close   f = in front L.o.D. = line of dance   sim. = similarly q = quick   R slip-step = R q, L q, R.
s = side (steps) or slow (rhythm), e.g. sR s = sidestep right (slow)
x = cross (steps)   x 2 = twice (....) x 3 = do steps within brackets 3 times.

Commas are used solely to separate the steps.Semicolons are sometimes used instead of commas to separate sections, or bars, of the dance.

Paul Boizot revised 04.08.16